Theme Camps

---

BAR

TCO: Mike

As the name would imply, BAR camp is a sophisticated haven of luxury and decadence (aka heat and booze). And that assumes we manage to keep the one burning and we don't run out of the other.

Burley Ten Pint Men

TCO: Shawn

A pub-like atmosphere with fire pits, food, music. Maybe darts again this year.

Camp Contact

TCO: Solid

Exploring our humanity through the wonders of contact.

First Fires

TCO: Paws

All welcome in the First Fires cave. Come cozy and hang out or paint on our cave walls.

Fuck Yeah!

TCO: Magical Mark

Come celebrate everything that makes you want to scream FUCK YEAH! Dance your face off, then warm up by our fire. Enjoy a cup of hot tea, with maple syrup, at the bar. Then DANCE YOUR FACE OFF SOME MORE! All 'Snow Dances' are also greatly appreciated, because we're building the igloo again! The Canadians are back for another year of arctic antics, and eager to make good on their igloo dreams. Come party, in decadent Eskimo style, with plenty of reindeer parking.

Habitat for Insanity

TCO: Teppy

Join us in the A-frame sweat lodge for a relaxing steam and sweat.

Half way INN

TCO: Morris

A spot to come and warm the body and soul. Drinks and food will be available.

Hot Gato

TCO: Melissa

We are a group of wilderness therapy guides coming to burn together. We will be offering hot drinks (gatorade, tea, etc), warm space, fire, conversation, and maybe some enneagram or tarot readings. If you are looking for a safe space to be open and vulnerable, come ask us to hold a circle for you and talk about your experience. Come join us for some warmth or invite us to join you in your wanderings around the tundra.

Illumination

TCO: Butterbean

Bringing light to the cold snowy darkness. Possible audio/visual distractions as well.

Loud Erudite Goblins on Fire

TCO: Chrystal

Goblins!

PengONE

TCO: halo

We like penguins and pineapples. We won't have any pineapples, but we do have nightly hot snow cones (alcoholic) that will be gifted to those willing to visit and maybe create a penguin or two for our journal.

Phart Camp

TCO: Bexx

Phart Camp, or Philadelphia Arts Camp, is a group of best buddies/Frostburn enthusiasts who cannot wait to Phart around with you at all hours of the day and night. Join us inside our moderately warm geohome where we offer opportunities for you to engage in all the pharts!: musical, visual, literary, culinary, performance, and more! We're a bunch of silly noodles and love our games too, so don't forget to look for our game bin and ask our resident Moose, "when can we meet the fish?"

Priority5

TCO: Kris

As a collective of non-violent partiers, you'll be sure to find the best tunes on the Tundra at P5. Stop by in the evenings for dancing, an open bar, and top shelf shenanigans. During the day we'll be serving up unique events and seminars with industry pioneers as part of P5 University. We'll keep your bones warm and spirits high.

The BEST Camp

TCO: Bambi

Chill camp of seasoned Frostburners keeping an eternal campfire hosting a few special events over the weekend.

The Coven

TCO: Demeter

Mostly just a large Lotus Belle with heat. A place to chill and hang out. Might have chill (non amplified) music. Small fire pit. Witch themed.

The difference between us and Earth is our cheeks ain't flat

TCO: Josey Wales

You won't need penicillin to cure us!

The Frozen Banana Blacklight Bar & Lounge

TCO: Johnny Mac

The Frozen Banana will be offering hot drinks and spiced booze (and hot spiced boozy drinks!) in the comfort of our (hopefully) heated blacklight bar and lounge space. Come warm your fingers, toes, and bellies with us!

Thoughts and Prayers

TCO: Andi

Hot drinks? Nah. Warm food? Nope. Cuddle Puddle space? Hell no. Thoughts and prayers? You bet!

Toddy Temple

TCO: Cayti

The Toddy Temple (and Biscuit Lab)

Come warm yourselves in the Toddy Temple and receive the sacrament of hot toddies! We of the Toddy Temple invite you to prostrate yourselves before our sacred font. Our Toddy Temple Priestesses and Priests keep the sacred elixir mixed and flowing between bouts of madness, chattering, and silent contemplations. Stare through the illusion of cold sanity into the warm hidden patterns described by our clove-studded lemons spiraling endlessly in the glorious thalassic abyss of teas and whiskeys. Bone tithes, blood sacrifices, and demonstrations of ecstatic illumination are meet offerings to the dark deities of the Toddy Temple. The touch of citrus-boozy madness is our blessing. Bring your own drinking vessel to receive the sacrament; the boozy addition to your elixir is optional, your cup is not!

Lucky pilgrims to the Toddy Temple may also witness and partake in the experimental sacrament known as Biscuit Lab! Merging a little science and a lot of faith we recklessly play with changing recipes and thus changing biscuits. Will any of them be good? Come devour one and find out! Bring your favorite jam, butter, mustard, or blood-jelly! But remember, these are dark experiments... for science!

White Dragon Noodle Bar

TCO: T-Pot

The White Dragon Noodle Bar is back from our travels round the 'verse for another year of slingin' salty noodles and stingin' drunken wit. When the tent's open, stop by for a snack, a chat, a drink, a game, or yet another story about your very generous mother. At sundown stay for our world-famous vegan soy shiitake noodle soup! Feeling shiny? Sumo wrestle a friend or frenemy and both of you cut the line.

White Rabbit

TCO: Josh

Chill lounge and art gallery. Come smoke some hookah with us, do art and keep warm in our yurt at the back of the First Fires cave.

Art

---

Ferris Wheel

Artist: Shawn

A large interactive Ferris Wheel for you to find and enjoy.

Rotating Music Video Art Gallery

Artists: Amy and Brian

For a brief period in history, VJ's broadcast music videos over screens, introducing people to music and visuals otherwise alien to them. As of late the music video has been neglected as a whole, relegated to commodified and commercial websites, even though technology has allowed most artists the freedom to create them. Join us inside the Phart Camp Geohome nightly, as we curate a rotating gallery of our most treasured music videos in recent memory. Varying genres from across the musical spectrum have been chosen with a diverse body of voices and instrumental talent represented. Video content includes a wide variety of filming techniques, aspect ratios, and narratives. We hope to inspire thoughts, emotion and catharsis.

The Bear

Artist: Grafton

Ever wanted a stuffed animal bigger than you? Come and enjoy this Giant Stuffed Teddy Bear. Brought to the tundra like no one can.
